CATERING GUIDELINES

Fairmont Washington D.C.'s culinary offerings feature locally sourced, organic, and sustainable items to bring the freshest items to your plate. Our culinary team presents flavors centered on health and creativity with a modern twist, while still providing a few familiar classics. Fairmont Washington D.C. will contract all food and beverage. We are responsible for the quality and freshness of the food served to our guests, therefore, no food may be brought into the hotel from another source for consumption in our facilities. Due to current health regulations, food may not be taken off the premises after it has been prepared and served, nor kept for a future event.

Menu arrangements are to be supplied and finalized to the Event Services Manager for review at least 30 days prior to each function. Should this deadline not be observed, we may not be able to guarantee menu contents and/or other necessary arrangements. Though it shall not alter in any way the food and beverage revenue commitment, it is the responsibility of the meeting planner to provide the Event Services Manager with the total guaranteed meal covers by 12 noon, 72 business hours in advance. In the event a Custom Menu (i.e. not listed within the current Banquet Menu has been arranged, the guaranteed guest count is due five (5) business days in advance. This will be considered a guarantee for which Fairmont Washington D.C. will prepare the appropriate amount of food and beverage for your guests. You will be charged according to the guest guarantee or the actual number served, whichever is greater. It must be understood that we will not assume any responsibility for selling and/or collecting meal tickets.

Special Meal requests must be submitted as part of your function guarantee. These requests would include special meals for vegetarians and guests with dietary restrictions or food allergies. Any special meals ordered less than 72 business hours prior to the event will be charged to the Master Account as additions to the guarantee. Kosher menus require a minimum (two) weeks prior notice. Menu items may contain nuts & nut-byproducts - please advise your Event Services Manager if any allergies. Please inquire about sustainable or organic menu alternatives. Consuming raw or undercooked meat, seafood or egg products can increase your risk of foodborne illness. Meals for less than 25 guests will incur a breakfast- $14 per person charge, Lunch- $16 per person, and Dinners with 25 guests or less $20 per person. One Chef Attendant is required per 75 guests as indicated on the menu at $240 per chef. One Bartender is required per 75 guests for any service of alcohol in the event space at $240 per bartender. Per local regulations, all alcohol must be opened and served by Fairmont Washington D.C.

Thank you for choosing Fairmont Washington D.C. for your event and catering needs. We look forward to creating a memorable experience.
